

HEALTH EQUITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE CONFERENCE 2020

Please join us for the 13th annual Health Equity & Social Justice Conference hosted by DePaul University's Master of Public Health Program and the Center for Community Health Equity.

The goal of this year's conference is to bring together community voices, share best practices, and provide a forum for organizations in the Chicagoland area to engage in lively, solution-oriented discussions at a time when many of us are separated by remote work.

Additional conference information, including keynote speakers and schedule of the day, will be posted to the conference website as it becomes available:

<https://depaulmph.wixsite.com/depaulmph/health-equity-social-justice>

When: Friday, November 6, 2020

Where: Virtual (Zoom details will be sent to those who register)

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/health-equity-social-justice-conference-2020-tickets-124162388045>

Questions? Contact the DePaul MPH Program at mph@depaul.edu
